

Equine and Farm Animal Veterinary Surgeon – Full Time

Location: Dundee, Scotland
Practice: Parkside Veterinary Group

Join our dedicated Equine and Farm animal team in beautiful Scotland – where career opportunities meet breathtaking landscapes.

Are you ready to take the next step in your veterinary career?

If you're passionate about Equine and Farm animal medicine and want a role that offers variety, support and a great work-life balance, this could be the perfect opportunity. At Parkside Veterinary Group, we combine clinical excellence with a strong team ethos, all in one of the most scenic regions of the UK.

About the Role

Parkside Veterinary Group is seeking a committed Equine and Farm Animal Veterinary Surgeon to join our experienced team based in Dundee, serving the stunning Tayside, Angus and Fife regions. This is a full-time position offering a varied caseload across equine, farm and small holder work, with excellent support whether you're an experienced vet or a recent graduate.

You'll be part of the equine and farm animal team within a well-established, multi-branch mixed practice. Our rota is evenly shared, with:

- Protected time off after night on-call.
- Half-day every week and Monday off following a weekend on-call.
- Out-of-hours phone service and lone worker safety scheme.

Why Parkside Vets?

We pride ourselves on being a forward-thinking, supportive practice with modern facilities, including:

- In-house equine stables and stocks at two locations.
- In-house laboratory.
- Advanced equipment: mobile digital X-ray, ultrasound for equine work, respiratory scope, fertility testing kits, and more.
- Access to visiting specialists, reducing the need for external referrals.

What We Offer

- Competitive salary.
- 32 days holiday plus your birthday off.
- 5 days CPD with a generous allowance; support for further qualifications encouraged and funded.

- A strong team ethos with regular meetings, protected lunch breaks and a genuine focus on work-life balance.

Life in Dundee & Tayside – What’s on Our Doorstep?

Dundee is a vibrant coastal city with excellent transport links, affordable living and a thriving cultural scene. Beyond the city, you’ll find:

- The Cairngorms National Park – perfect for hiking, skiing, and wildlife spotting.
- Angus Glens and Perthshire – stunning countryside for walking, cycling, and horse riding.
- Beautiful beaches along the east coast
- Easy access to Edinburgh and Aberdeen for city breaks.

Whether you love outdoor adventures, historic sites or a lively social scene, this region offers something for everyone.
